

Short Story
Final Exam-Open material
Dr. Dalia Fadila
June 2012

Answer the following question (A,B and C); use evidence from the texts to support your answer. Be correct in your grammar and spelling.

A. The short story Emancipation is a metaphore; explain how the language, structure, and protagonist of the story are metaphoric.

(30 points)

B. Compare and contrast the lives and ends of two characters you choose from the stories studied in class. Show both the similarities and the differences between them.

(30 points)

C. Both the quilt in Alice Walker's Every Day Use and the egg in Sherwood Anderson's The Egg are symbolic of the two authors' attitudes to culture. Explain how such symbolism is accomplished.

(40 points)

GOOD LUCK.